E-erm, right. As promised, I'll tell you... You see... That fob watch...
It CAN be opened.

But only at the right moment!
L-Look, it's hard to explain, but you HAVE to be ready to open that watch. It will literally change the life you have now.

I-it's not exactly bad, but it will be a very hard choice for you now. It will feel easy once it's made, though.
Trust me, I know how it feels...
But I am sure you will be brilliant when the day comes!!

Y... You should go now.
Go on, go be... brilliant...

And when you are brilliant, give me a visit~♡

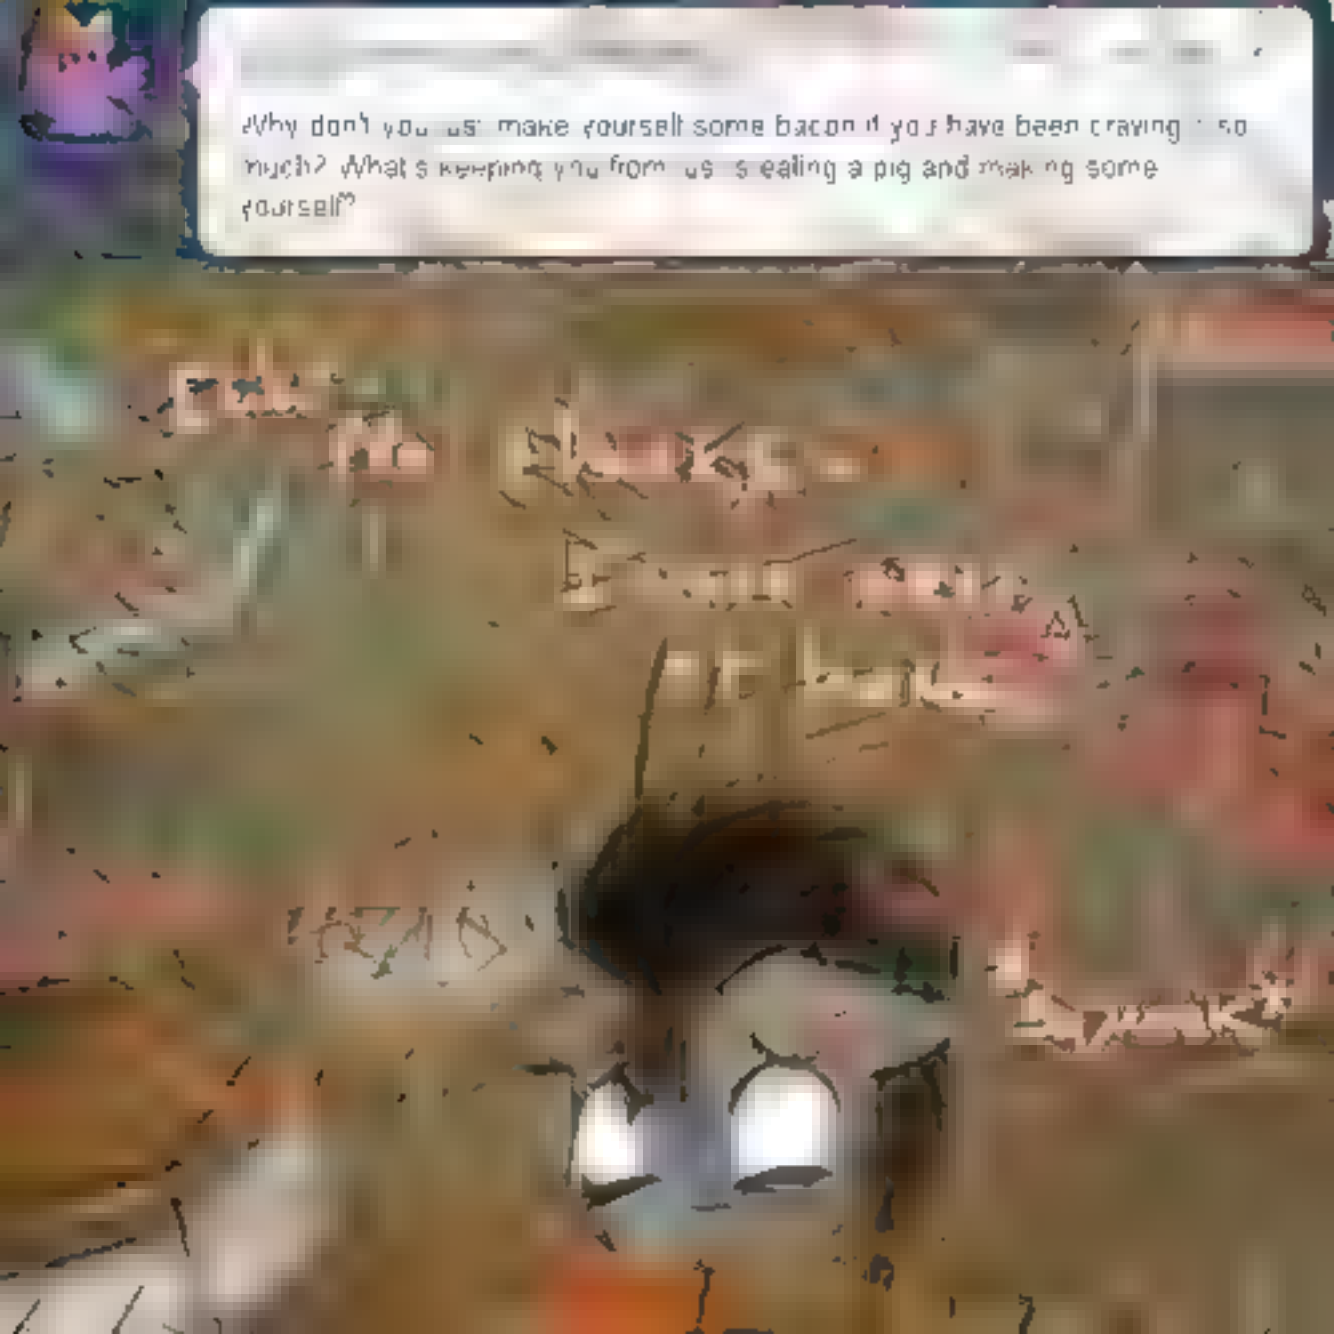
Hey Doctor I heard you like bacon so I'm sending a whole crate of it on the TARDIS via Transmat Enjoy it

Recently heard you'd like some bacon Is this true sir? Because I can send you some It's not the kind you know but it can emulate the taste rather close



Why don't you just make yourself some bacon if you have been craving it so much? What's keeping you from just stealing a pig and making some yourself?

Aren't ponies supposed to be vegetarians?

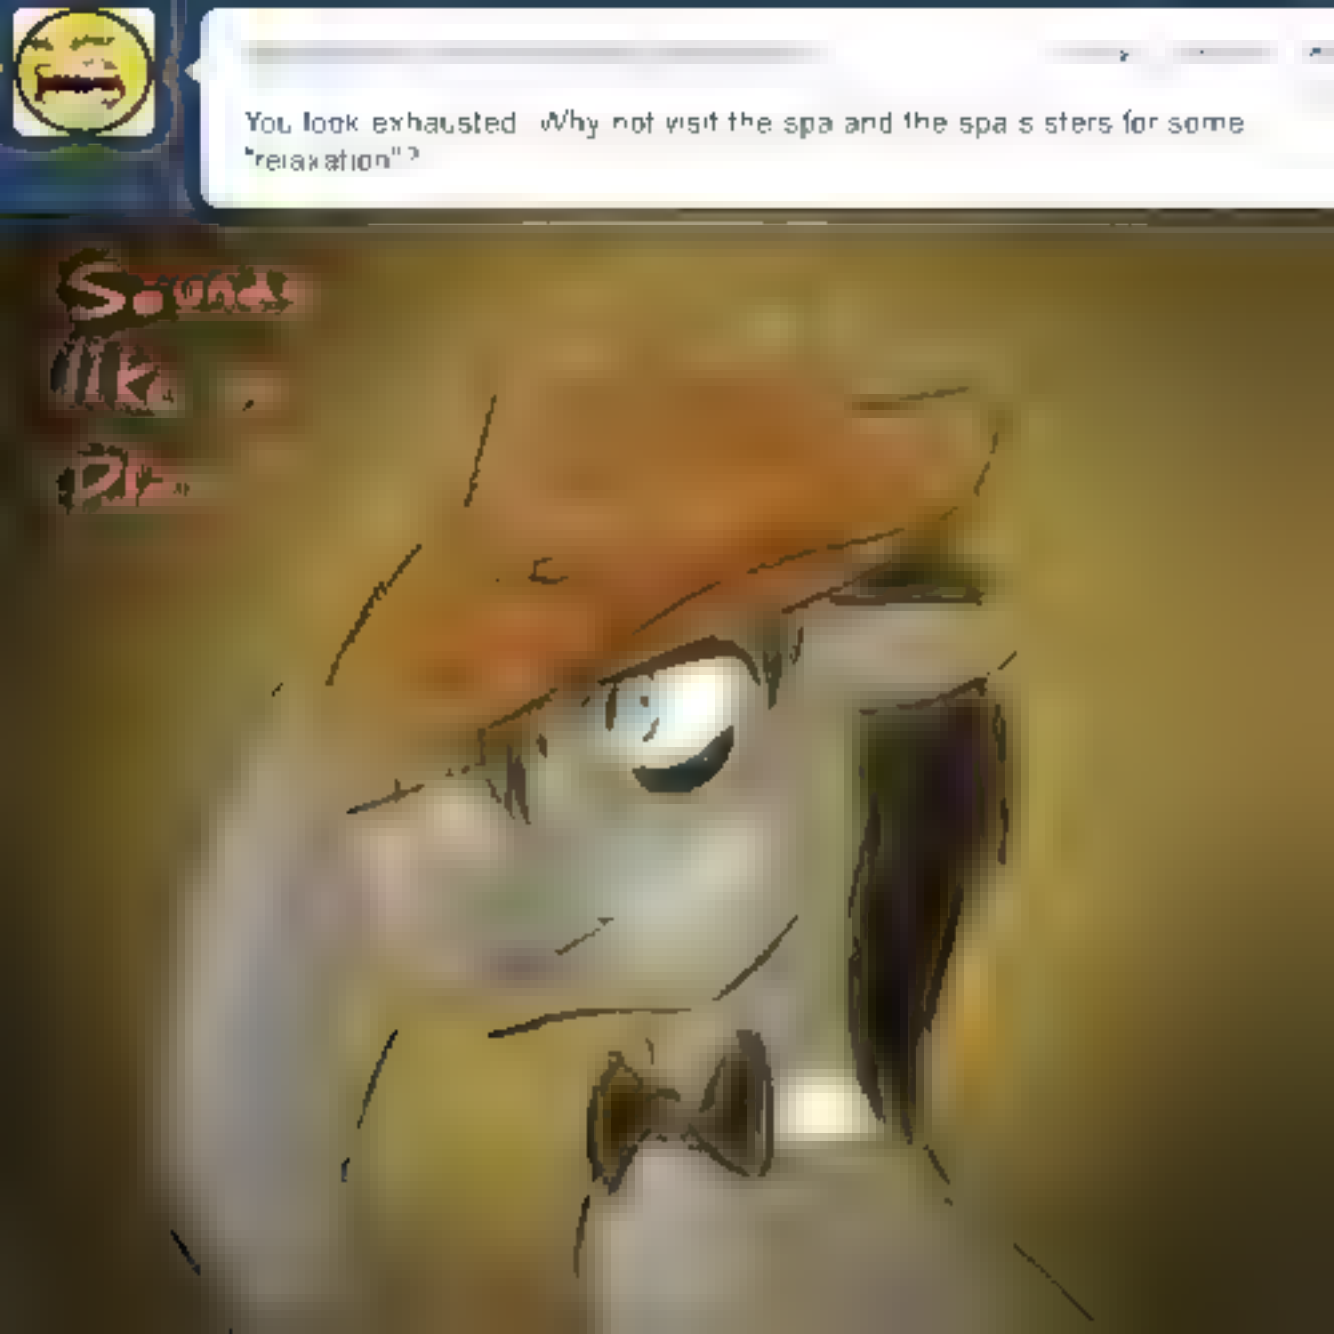
your boyfriend is stalking my tumblr stop him now

Here, Doc. Have a Stetson. This should restore at least some of your masculinity.



You look exhausted. Why not visit the spa and the spa sisters for some "relaxation"?

Tough isn't it, that fear of dying? I think it's easier for us lesser mortal creatures. We know death is coming from the start. In the end everything we build will crumble, we'll be forgotten in the grand scheme of things. We accept it. And we "keep going". Stupid, I know. But I think you're finding out that without that perseverance there really isn't much left to do. So if you think it will help, I give up on crying for us - now that there's a whole lot of us who won't "ever" give up on you.

Cid Highwind says:

Hey dude, you seem like a cool guy, but you really fucked things up. I may in many levels hate most of my friends, but that doesn't stop me from wanting to see some loyalty out there. It's enough to keep me from going full on angel, but what you've done here was weak and treacherous. Patient zombies succumb to their own dilemma and take the easy way out. So you beat the shit out of a friend, but it's a little late for regrets eh, hahaHAHAHA!

So you ever just stop, take a breath and ask yourself - is this enough? Being human - and whatever else aside, do you have enough. Are you satisfied with your lot? Can you stop here. Content with what you have right now. Content with what you can do. Is this all you really want. What's all that make you or Time Lord? Are you happy, Curator. These questions had to be asked. Don't run from me. Who are you in the dark. Who are you when no one else is looking? Sincerely, Angelus

You've letting her grow inside your head. Control. Doctor. No purpose, no focus. You've gone out of control because you feel weak and helpless. You're fighting against those weaker than you self because you refuse to live and go after who wronged you. Me. I'm not your fucking conscious, you know you don't hate her. Doctor. You actually love her.
It's interesting isn't it. All that rage, all that malice, all the frustration it festers with every second you spend in the TARDIS. And yet you go mad and suddenly it all implodes and you're left a hollow shell of a man. Horse. Whatever. In any case, you seem to be at something of an emotional impasse. Now what are you going to do about it.
Oh Doctor, how you have fallen. You were once a warrior, a defender, and look at you now. Running with a mere baggage of your former self, a mere fragment of what you once were and used to be. We belong in the dark, together, for no one will save us. No one will dare to step into our world and pull us free from the hate and misery. Don't make you go it alone in that world, Doctor.
For you gave up your noble, pure souls for survival instinct. Were you wrecked by bleeding instincts. How you gave in to need for base violence and domination of a lesser, simple animal. Time Lord, but what have you become, my self. What is your purpose. Do you cling to your life for the squirt of endorphin your brain serves you whenever you follow your most primitive instincts?

Hey, Doctor. Feeling alright?

Since you have wings again can't you just fly away from the master before he gets to you instead of you just giving in?
Umm, well,
how to fly. I

Quit being such a fucking pussy. That's how you use them
ballsack, twat.

You could try asking someone who already knows how to fly. Maybe Fluttershy, seeing you had some fun with her. Or maybe Rainbow Dash. Her pride practically RUNS off her flying ability.
I'M not think of your wings as another pair of arms and flap them like a birds wings can help with lots of things planks and stuff but dont let you're losing yourself to instinct don't let it consume you

Flappa
Flappa

Well what sort of problems are you having with your wings? The best advice I can offer is to keep your flapping rhythm steady and not think about it too much. It'll come more or less naturally if you just let it happen.

Flying s like everything e se takes practice Lots of practice A barre role is not spinning on one ax s like an idiot Or just ex end you wings kick off with all fours and flap Flap like you life depends on it Once you gain a p ope altitude glide the wind c rrents so you don't have o constant y flap Remember to do th s where you have p enty of open space

Most birds fly by using a more circular motion with their wings. It's not completely up and down like many think.

The young lady was fair skinned, and possessed fire colored locks, the perfect dame in the dreary city that lay before us. help

Didn't you once say that you could rave to different universes and pick out the "frustrated males?" If so, why not find an Octavia that would like to dance with you using the same approach?

Docto it's really quite simple You don't have o ask Octavia out You just have to kidnap her I'm sure that after a few hours (or weeks of being apped she might start to warm p to you Besides it's morally correct since she did ie you up herself It's s just re urning the favor o show your interes ed In fact it would be rude not to k dnap her

Calm down doctor. She's actually a really nice and polite Octavia. Dont be the classy little bastard you are and you'll charm her in no time~

Since I feel bad for you, Doctor, I've decided to help you out with Octavia. Normally a woman of her caliber wouldn't even give you the time of day, but if you can rein in your uncouth behavior and get a little class she might actually allow you to get near her. Hope that helps.

Did you know you are just trying to get to know her better, then and her interes and try to be honest about your feelings now stop hiting for damn sake!

Top hat? Top hat

She can't pass up you in that outfit Doctor wash you ack looking good doc If his doesn't work I don know what will

How about this: You go to Octavia act like a real gentlepony and ask if she would be interested in getting to know you, not to mention telling her that you would be interested in getting to know her as well? Work up a casual companion relationship think you should first understand her soul It s simple go on one of her concert and try to understand what she s feeling when she play on he instrument Pay attention o her expression Notice n wich moment she s sad or happy Try to find her weak spot MarioB1BPL

She's Practically an ice queen though.

It's Strange
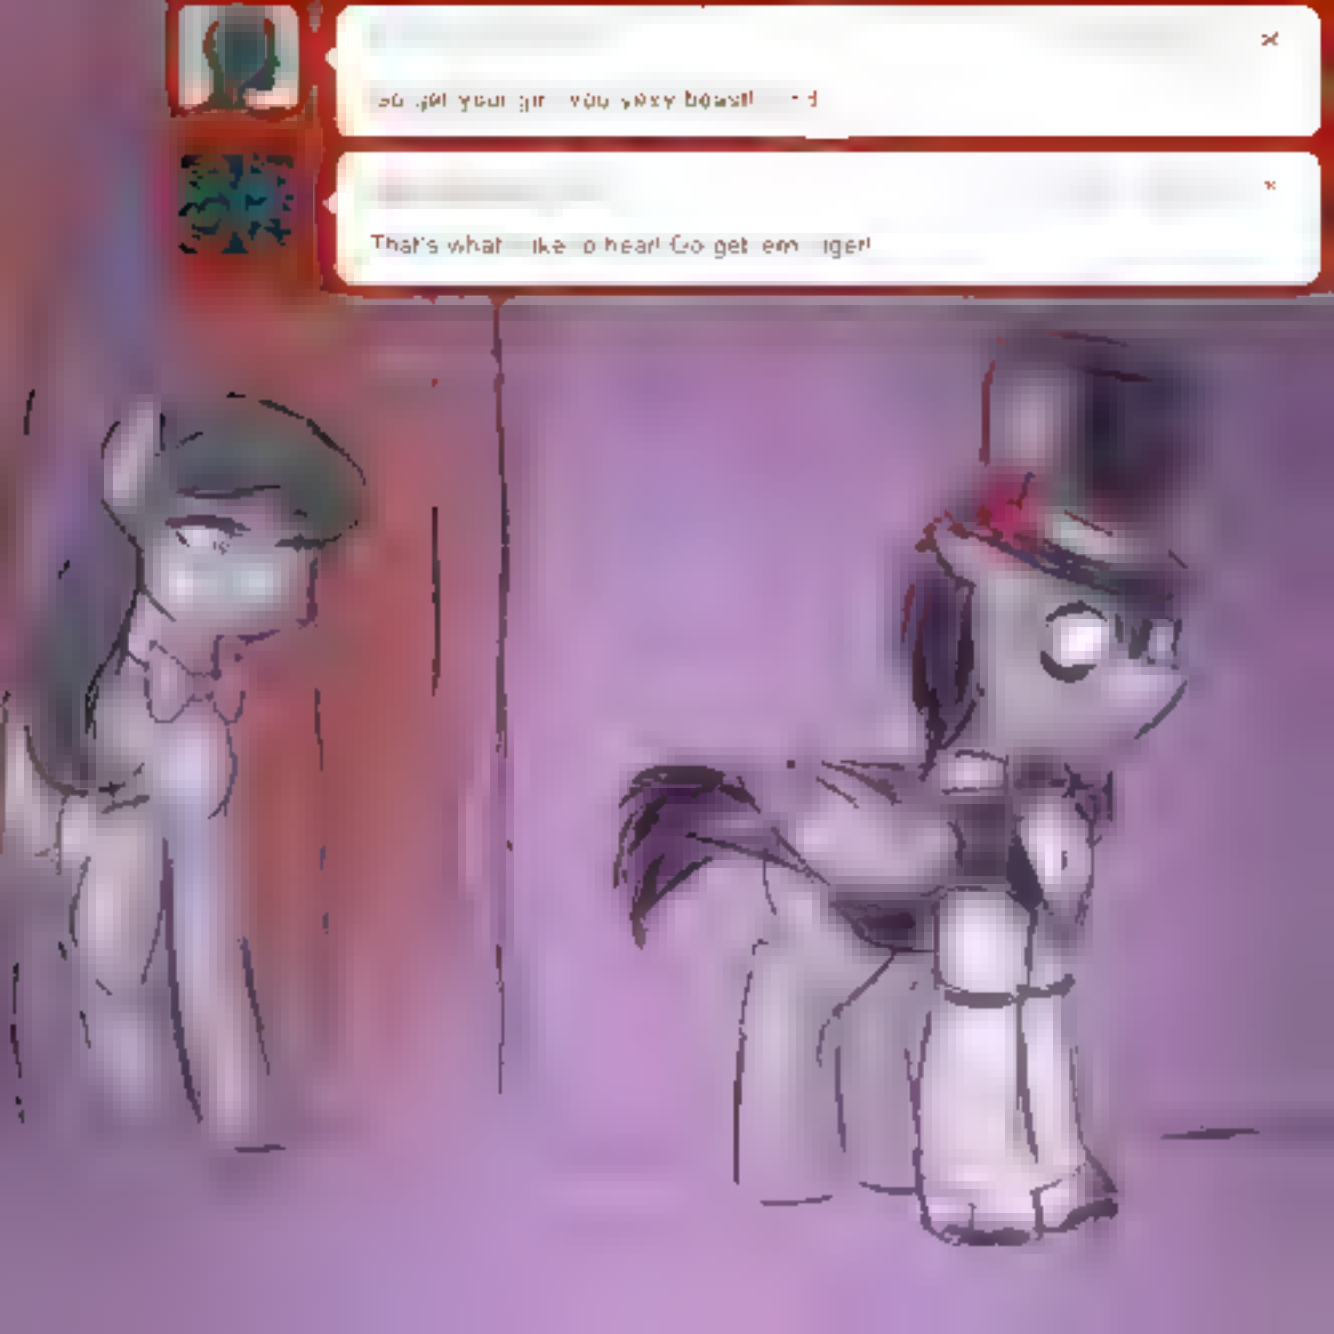
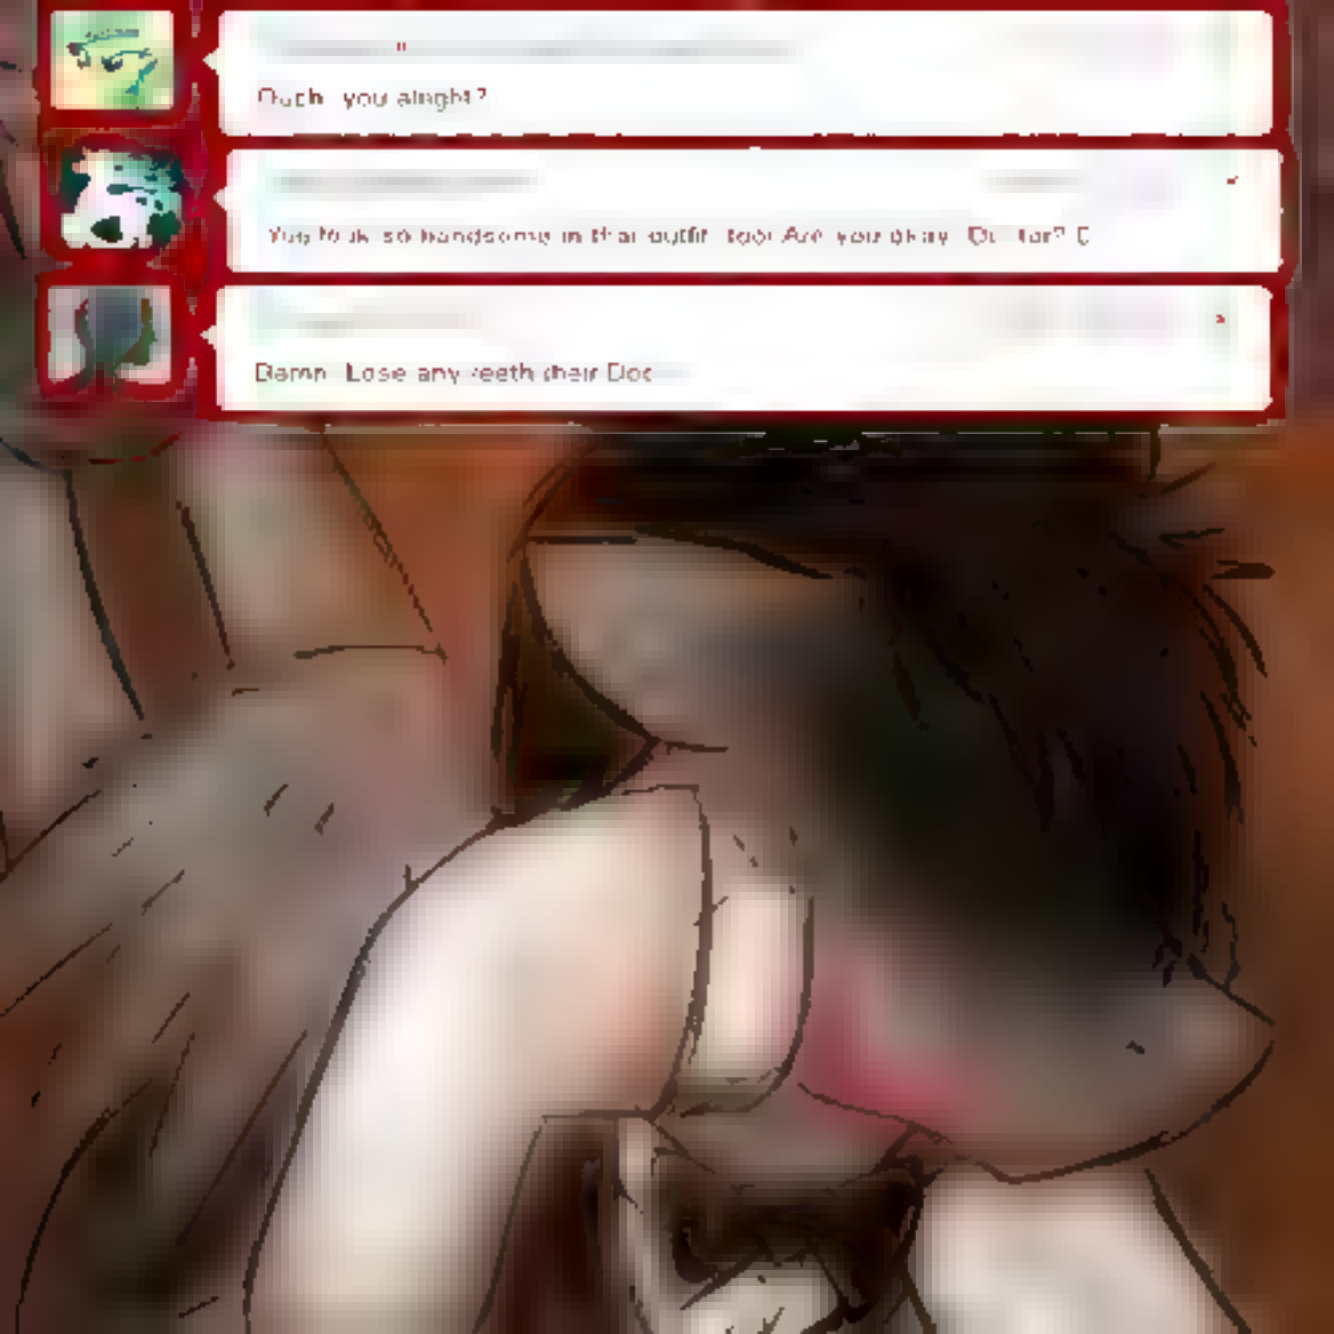
I really want her to have an expression.

Now Doctor since you are such a screw up must remind you NOT and repeat NOT to act lewd crude or just plain stupid. As I have stated Orravia is a classy lady and deserves nothing but the best



That's what I like to hear! Go get 'em tiger!



Ouch, you alright?
You look so handsome in that outfit, too! Are you okay, Doctor? C
Damn. Lose any teeth there Doc

Okay, so forget being classy. She's obviously not interested in that. Maybe you should just go to plan B: just tie her up and ravage her.

Don't give up. This is just a minor setback. Try and convince her that your intentions are good Okay, my suggestion is to remain composed and cool. Octavia just remembers your disrespect from before. Be calm, be polite. Be a gentleman... and don't get drunk.

You think class can save your a$$? You're a pegasus that can't bloody fly

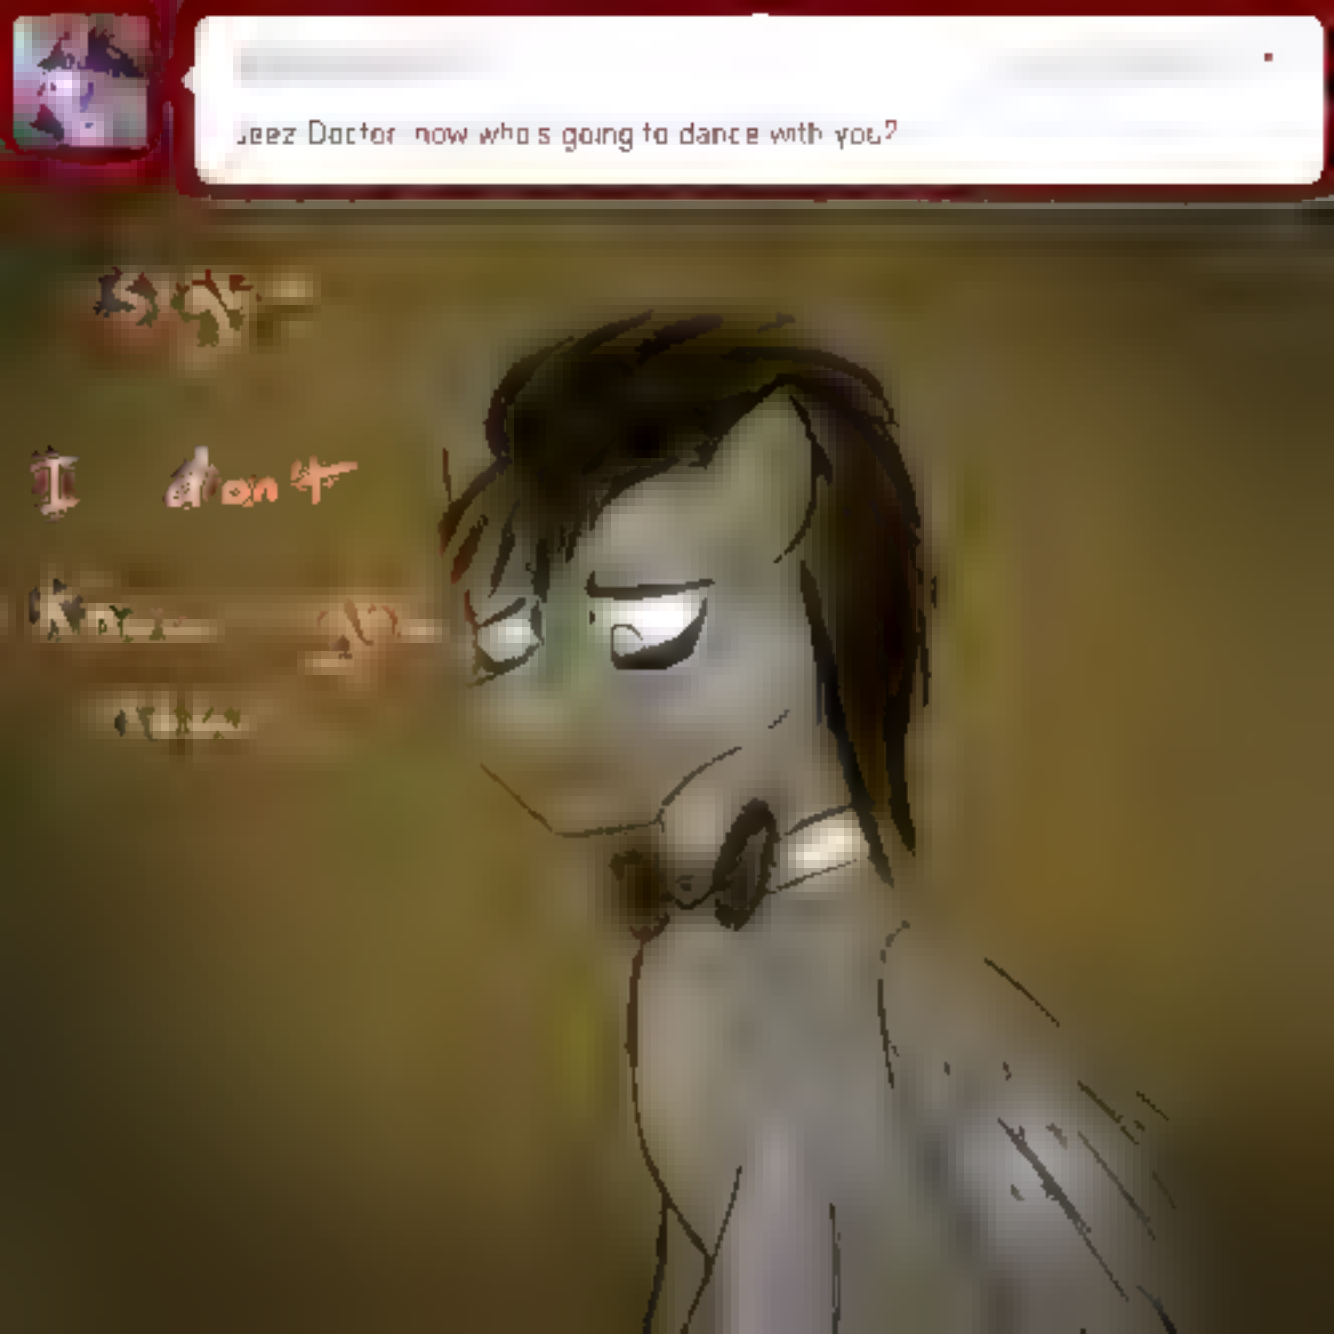
Откуда такие познания в русском? D



Jeez Doctor now who s going to dance with you?

Much as you aren't going to like hearing this, I don't think that Octavia is your best bet for a dance partner. At least, not at the moment. However, I have a suggestion. Have you heard of Minuette? I believe she's a good dancer. And get this, she's a Time Lady.

The flowers tossed by the bride then making that exact cut to the baffled guests just before jumping back into the TARDIS and disappearing.)

I love it when you're happy Doctor. Rightly properly happy. When you feel that hope or shine you just light up.I mean it your coat literly changes color from grey to brown. You must feel it, like that wight you carry in your hearts just lifts for the briefest of seconds. Do you know what I'm talking about?
